

Andreas Eisl

Senior research fellow, European economic policy

Andreas Eisl is Senior Research fellow on European economic policy at the Jacques Delors Institute. As a comparative political economist, his expertise is centred on questions of EU economic governance, macroeconomic and budgetary policy-making, public debt and investment in Europe. Currently, he works particularly on the reform of the European fiscal framework, key instruments of EU industrial policy-making, and the relationship between debt and climate sustainability. He is also a member of the Horizon Europe research project REGROUP, in which he investigates the interrelationship between crises and European integration.

Andreas Eisl holds a PhD in political science from Sciences Po and the Max Planck Institute for the Study of Societies (MPIfG)/University of Cologne, as well as a master's degree in geography from the University of Salzburg. He has taught at Sciences Po and the Sorbonne Nouvelle.

Bibliographie

Andreas Eisl , "European fiscal framework reform – a compromise, for better or worse", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 12/01/2024

Andreas Eisl , Solena Lefeuvre , "national mini-public report: france", Report, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 31/10/2023

Andreas Eisl , "How stringent would the new Stability and Growth Pact be? And for who?", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 08/06/2023

Andreas Eisl , "The European recovery plan as a breakthrough for green innovation? Challenges and opportunities for an innovative green recovery", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 17/12/2021

Eulalia Rubio , Andreas Eisl , "How Effective is Differentiation in the EU Economic Policy Field?", Other document, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 01/06/2021

Andreas Eisl , Eulalia Rubio , "Spending EU subsidies well: A challenge for Member States", Infographic, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 16/02/2021

Andreas Eisl , "External Differentiation in Access to the Single Market: Effectiveness, Accountability and Political Unity", Policy paper, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 10/11/2020

Andreas Eisl , "[FR] Fiscal policy in France and Germany: insurmountable differences?", Other document, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors,