

Cyrille Bret

Associate Research Fellow, Russia & Eastern Europe

Cyrille BRET, PhD graduated from the National School for Humanities and Social Sciences (Ecole Normale Supérieure) and the National School of Government. He assumed several positions in the public and private sector focusing on defense and security. Currently Associate Research Fellow in the Jacques Delors Institute, he is expert on Eastern Europe and Russia. He has published among other essays 10 Terrorists Attacks that changed the World (2020).

Bibliographie

Cyrille Bret , "Two years of war in Ukraine: What impact on the EU geopolitical strategy?", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 22/02/2024

Cyrille Bret , "Is neutrality an outdated concept in Europe?", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 31/01/2023

Cyrille Bret , "European Union / Russia.", Policy paper, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 02/04/2021

Cyrille Bret , Florent Parmentier , "EU - Russia: beyond rivalries?", Policy paper, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 07/07/2016