

Paul Damm

Former intern at the Jacques Delors Institute (2005-2006)

Paul Damm is a graduate of Sciences Po in Paris, the Louvre school and the Sorbonne. For his thesis he chose to write about the French Navy in the 18th century. At Sciences Po in the framework of the European Convention of students of political sciences his research focused on educational questions. During his internship at Jacques Delors Institute from July 2005 to December 2006, Paul Damm was in charge of communication and public relations.

Bibliographie

Paul Damm , ".eu: Why it Was Worth Dotting the EU", Brief, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 18/10/2006

Paul Damm , Morgan Larhant , Gaëtane Ricard-Nihoul , "The Vision of Europe in the New Member States", Report, Paris, Institut Jacques Delors, 06/06/2006