

Sacha Courtial

Assistant to Pascal Lamy's office

Sacha Courtial joined the team as an assistant to Pascal Lamy's office.

Sacha holds a Master's degree from the London School of Economics specialising in economic governance in Europe and China. He has completed several internships with elected officials at the French National Assembly and the European Parliament. He also developed management skills with the pan-European party Volt Europa.