

CHATHAM HOUSE

GLOBAL TRENDS 2030 IMPLICATIONS FOR THE EU

Chatham House, London, 13 April 2012

- 09:00 Welcome
Robin NIBLETT – Director, Chatham House, London
- 09:10 Introduction - ESPAS as an Inter-institutional project
James ELLES – Member, European Parliament, Brussels
- 09:30 Session 1 - Report Global Trends 2030 findings
Álvaro DE VASCONCELOS – Director, EUISS, Paris
Mathew BURROWS – Counselor, Director, National Intelligence Council, Washington, DC
- 10:45 Coffee
- 11:00 Session 2 - Empowerment of the individuals: the challenge of the EU democratic deficit
Thomas BAGGER – Director, Planning Division, Auswärtiges Amt, Berlin
Richard YOUNGS, Director, FRIDE
Robin NIBLETT– Director, Chatham House, London (Chair)
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30-15:00 Session 3 - Innovation in an age of climate change and scarcity: The challenge of EU common policy
Sami ANDOURA – Senior Research Fellow, Notre Europe, Paris
Bernice LEE – Research Director, Energy Environment and Resource Governance, Chatham House, London
- 15:00-1630 Session 4 - European middle powers in a polycentric world: The challenge of unity
Constanze STELZENMÜLLER– German Marshall Fund
Dr Martin ORTEGA– Complutense University (provisional)
Jan TECHAU, Carnegie Europe (Chair - provisional)