

DEBATE WITH HERMAN VAN ROMPUY PRESIDING OVER THE EUROPEAN COUNCIL: LESSONS AND CHALLENGES

25 NOVEMBER 2014 – 17H15 > 19H00

Sciences Po, Amphitheatre Jacques Chapsal, 27 rue Saint Guillaume, 75007 Paris

At the time when the European Union's institutions are being renewed, Notre Europe – Jacques Delors Institute and the Sciences Po Center for European Studies are honored to welcome Herman VAN ROMPUY, for a conference-debate on his five years at the Presidency of the European Council and the major challenges of the European Union.

Financial, economic and social crises, energy and climate changes, instability in the South and the East, the implementation of the Lisbon Treaty, and rising euroscepticism and europhobia: just a few European issues on which Herman VAN ROMPUY will offer his global point of view, a few days prior to the end of his mandate.

Herman VAN ROMPUY will also tackle on the evolution of the relationship between France and the European Union, before answering the questions asked by the public.

This debate will be introduced by Jacques DELORS, President of the European Commission between 1985 and 1995, and Honorary president of Notre Europe – Jacques Delors Institute.

PROGRAMME

Welcoming

Frédéric MION, Director of Sciences Po

Introduction

Jacques DELORS, Honorary president of Notre Europe – Jacques Delors Institute; President of the European Commission (1985 – 1995)

Five years presiding the European Council: assessment and perspectives.

Herman VAN ROMPUY, President of the European Council (2009 – 2014)

Debate with the public led by Yves BERTONCINI, Director of Notre Europe – Jacques Delors Institute

Mandatory registration:

External: inscriptions@notre-europe.eu

Sciences-Po students : Sciences Po registration