

INTERNSHIP OFFER

ON EUROPEAN TRADE POLICY

STARTING – OCTOBER 2019
FINISHING – MARCH 2019

Jacques Delors Institute (JDI) is the European think-tank founded by Jacques Delors in 1996 (under the name of Notre Europe). Its mission consists in producing analyses and proposals both for Europe's decision-makers and for a broader audience and in contributing to debates on European issues. Former Italian Prime Minister, Enrico Letta is the JDI current chairman. All of JDI's output can be accessed free of charge in both French and English on our website: www.delorsinstitute.eu.

JDI conducts research on the EU trade policy and its Paris office looks for an intern for a period of six months to:

- Contribute to several research projects on the EU trade policy: Brexit, bilateral negotiations, WTO reform, multilateralism, Belt and Road Initiative, ...
- Prepare analysis notes for its Honorary President, Pascal Lamy;
- Assist the team in the organisation of seminars or other events and in the dissemination of JDI's work.

SKILLS REQUIRED:

- A Master's degree in Economy, European Affairs or Political Science and knowledge in EU trade policy.
- Fluent in French and bilingual in English (English as mother tongue would be an added value);
- An excellent knowledge of EU institutions and policies;
- Good writing and communication skills;
- A strong spirit of initiative and an ability to work autonomously and in a team environment.

An internship agreement is required.

The intern will receive an internship grant (750 euros, "Tickets restaurant" and subway pass).

Interested candidates should send their application to Elvire Fabry, Senior Research Fellow at the JDI: fabry@delorsinstitute.eu (object: application for « Trade Internship ») before the 30 June 2019.

Please attach: CV and a cover letter.
